

VIDEO ENTRY RULES:

Submit a 90-second video on a CD-ROM disk and mail it along with all the required paperwork to UCU. Videos may not be larger than 100MB and must be in one of the following formats: WMV, AVI, MOV or MPG.

Entrants must provide all of the information requested or their entries are void. One entry per member. University Credit Union will not disclose your last name, phone number, or e-mail address to any outside entity. That information will be used only to determine eligibility and distribute prizes. Completed entries must be postmarked by September 30, 2011.

By entering, participants represent and warrant to University Credit Union that the submitted video is the participant's own original work; that the participant is the sole owner of the video and all of the rights associated with it; that the video does not violate any rights of others; and that the video does not display any inappropriate material.

University Credit Union and its agencies are not responsible for incomplete, damaged, destroyed, delayed, stolen, misdirected or illegible video entries. Video entry materials that have been tampered with or altered are void. University Credit Union is not responsible for the use of copyrighted material such as music, images or video. Once submitted, video entries become the sole property of University Credit Union and will not be returned.

By entering, participants release and hold harmless University Credit Union, their respective affiliates, directors, officers, employees, attorneys, and representatives from any and all liability for any injuries, loss, claim, action, demand or damage of any kind arising from participation in the Contest.

By participating, entrants agree to be bound by the Official Rules and the decisions of the judges, which shall be final. Odds of winning depend on the total number of eligible entries received. Taxes are the sole responsibility of the scholarship winner.
